

THE GOOD. THE BAD. AND THE SCOUSE

Let's find Out More!

There are lots of interesting heritage learning points in 'A Grave Mistake?'... Let's Find Out More! gives you a chance to delve a little deeper into the tale of the fiendish Mr. Hetherington.

TASK: In pairs / small groups you will find out the answer to one of the following questions:

- 1. Mr. Hetherington stole £750.00 as part of his scam. Approximately how much money would this be the equivalent of nowadays (with inflation)?

Tip: The Bank of England have an 'Historic Inflation Calculator'.

- 2. Mr. Hetherington was a Registrar at Toxteth Cemetery. In your own words describe this job role.

- 3. When was Toxteth Cemetery opened?

- 4. Are there any 'notable' people buried in Toxteth Cemetery? If so, who are they and why are they 'notable'?

Tip: www.toxtethparkcemetery.co.uk may be a useful site to use for this question.

- 5. Can you find out if any other cemeteries were opened up in Liverpool during the 1850s – 1900s? In what locations did they open?

You will then feedback your answers to the rest of the group. If you find the answer to your allocated question, then try and find the answer to another question.
